CONSULTATION SERVICES

Placement Program Consultation ~ for persons interested in exploring all of their options in adoption in a one-on-one consultation with our Executive Director. There is a $75/hour fee for this service. This service can take the place of our free orientation meeting and there is no obligation. Consultation appointments can be scheduled by contacting either Rebecca Ricardo at 804-354-1881.

Waiting Child Consultation ~ for persons specifically interested in learning about children ages 9 and older who are waiting for an adoptive family and children for whom we are recruiting adoptive families. Please contact Ebony Mack or Alicia Bugausan at 804-354-1881 to schedule an appointment.

CORE COMPETENCIES TRAINING

Please read below for a description of educational trainings offered to the public and our clients. Families in the home study assessment process are required to attend training before completing their home study assessment process. There is additional reading required specific to the type of adoption you are pursuing. If you are having a conflict with the timing or availability of the training you need, please talk with your adoption worker about additional options locally or online.

If you are a Placement Program client of C2Adopt, the cost of your training is included in your service fees. Adoptive Family Support Program clients may attend any workshop for free.

For the general public, please note the per person fee indicated by each training. Payment may be paid at the workshop via check or cash.

- Workshops listed are subject to change and/or cancellation.
- Attendees must call (804) 354-1881 and register at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled date.
- We need a minimum of 5 participants in order to proceed with any of these trainings.
- Our training room can accommodate 20 participants. Once we are over that number, a new location will be secured and participants will be notified of the change.
- Please call and verify that the workshop you wish to attend is being held as planned and that you are registered.

All families adopting through the Waiting Child program should also read the following three books:

Beyond Consequences, Logic and Control by Forbes
Three Little Words by Rhodes-Courter
Wounded Children, Healing Homes by Schooler, Keefer-Smalley & Callahan

For all clients who want to explore adoption from another country and/or a child of a different race, we recommend the online course: "Conspicuous Families" on Adoption Learning Partners www.adoptionlearningpartners.org. Families are responsible for the fee and receiving a certificate. We also recommend: Come Rain or Come Shine by Rachel Garlinghouse.

FOR OUR FAMILIES AFTER PLACEMENT:

Becoming an Adoption & Trauma Competent Healing Parent: Based upon the model developed by Jayne Schooler, this two day training introduces and examines the essential skills of trauma and adoption informed parenting. Practical strategies and tools will be shared and parents will gain practical knowledge and experience that will help them deal with the emotional and behavioral needs of traumatized children who join their family through adoption. Appropriate for any parent/caregiver and child welfare professionals; families in supervision are encouraged to attend, any former or current AFP/AFS clients and any local foster parent are welcome.

DATES ARE TO BE ANNOUNCED

SUPPORT GROUPS

Birth Parent & Adult Adoptee Support Group

6:30 PM 3rd Tuesday of each month

This support group is free and available to any adult adoptee or any parent who has placed a child for adoption regardless of when, how or with another agency. This group is also open and available to anyone contemplating adoption for their child as an opportunity to speak with others who have lived the experience. Extended family members are also welcome to attend. The group is led by a social worker, who is also a birth mother and an adoptee.
